

Sorcery Technology is a professional provider and manufacturer specializing in intelligent loss prevention solutions and smart digital displays in retail industry. Sorcery Technology is based in downtown Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island. We serve you proudly in Canada. To be specific, Sorcery offers EAS loss prevention solution and accessories, RFID solution and accessories, security display and electronic shelf label (ESL).

We have our own production line for the customized systems, durable tags and labels. To be obvious, our price is fairly competitive, and we concentrate on our customers' requirement and provide them with the best individualized solution and exceptional follow-up service fit to their needs. Moreover, we have an experienced research and development (R&D) department, which is in a position to innovate practical products and improve retail solutions.

Sorcery has more than 100 types of tag solution for different customers' requirement. Customers can choose the best security and display solution fits to their merchandise, store layout, brand emphasis, marketing positioning and budget. Our mission statement is Sorcery Technology will be recognized as a leading provider of intelligent loss prevention solutions and smart digital displays throughout Canada.

